Dear Marta,

We are reading to begin research on a module entitled "La Chicana" which we hope will reflect the attitudes and feelings of a variety of chicanas and also trace the history of la mujer mexicana.

As you know, material on la chicana is scarce and there is little to draw from here in Crystal City. We would very much appreciate you sending us any information you feel might be helpful in developing our module. To my knowledge, this will be the first time such a unit has been attempted anywhere in the Southwest. There are special study courses on Mexican Americans, white and black women but nothing has been written for the classroom specifically for or about la chicana.

Muchisimas gracias por tu ayuda. ¡Arriba y adelante!

Sinceramente,

Jeanette Lizcano
